'PICTURING WAR'

ART HISTORY DAY

Clavering Village Hall

Saturday 17 November 2018

10.15am – 4pm

Tickets £15

This series of lectures, arranged by Elizabeth Allen who lives in Clavering, will explore the works produced by a number of British artists in response to World War 1. The immediate question raised at the time 'did art and artists have any public role, indeed any role, in wartime conditions?' – was answered in the affirmative by the artists themselves.

The day is about the works, the paintings and posters, produced by Sir George Clausen, John Lavery, Paul and John Nash, Wyndham Lewis, Randolph Schwabe, Stanley Spencer and Ursula Wood, though other artists will be referred to.

Please return the form overleaf by 9 November.
